

KINDERGARTEN

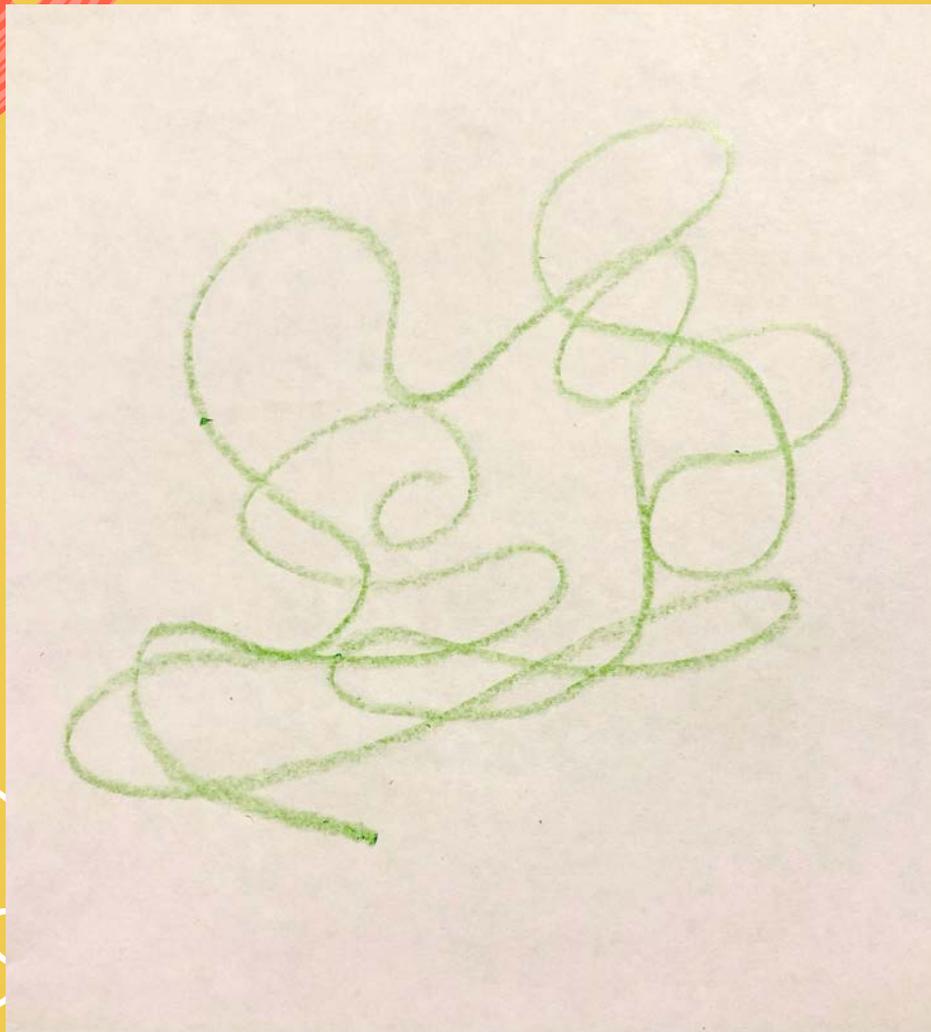

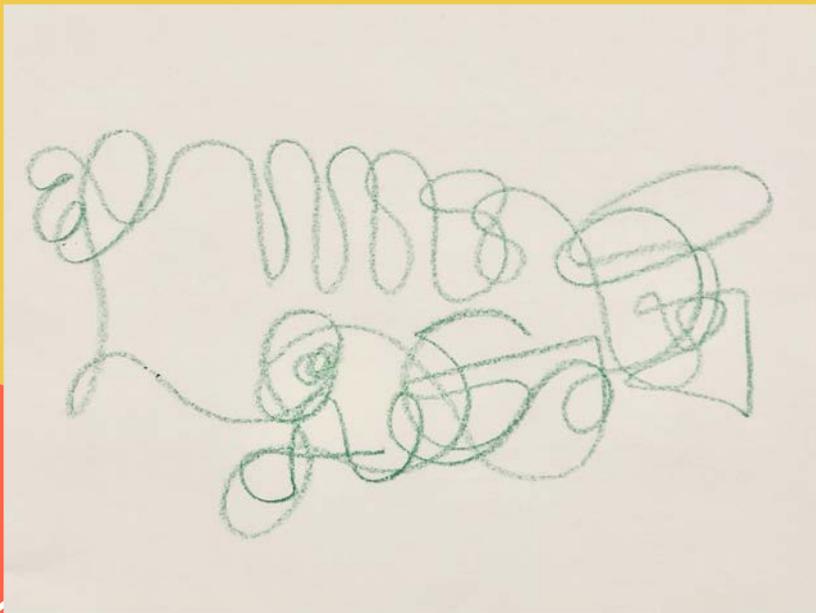

MODERN ART FOR KIDS: HILMA AF KLINT

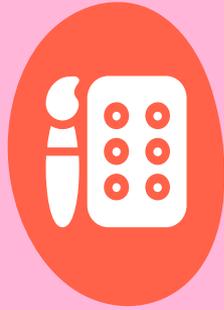

WARM-UP ACTIVITY

Automatic drawing can be described as “expressing the subconscious.” It is implied that one should draw randomly across the paper, without any rational thinking.

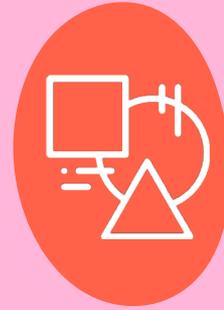

AUTOMATIC DRAWING

VOCABULARY

MODERN ART

ABSTRACT
ART

VOCABULARY

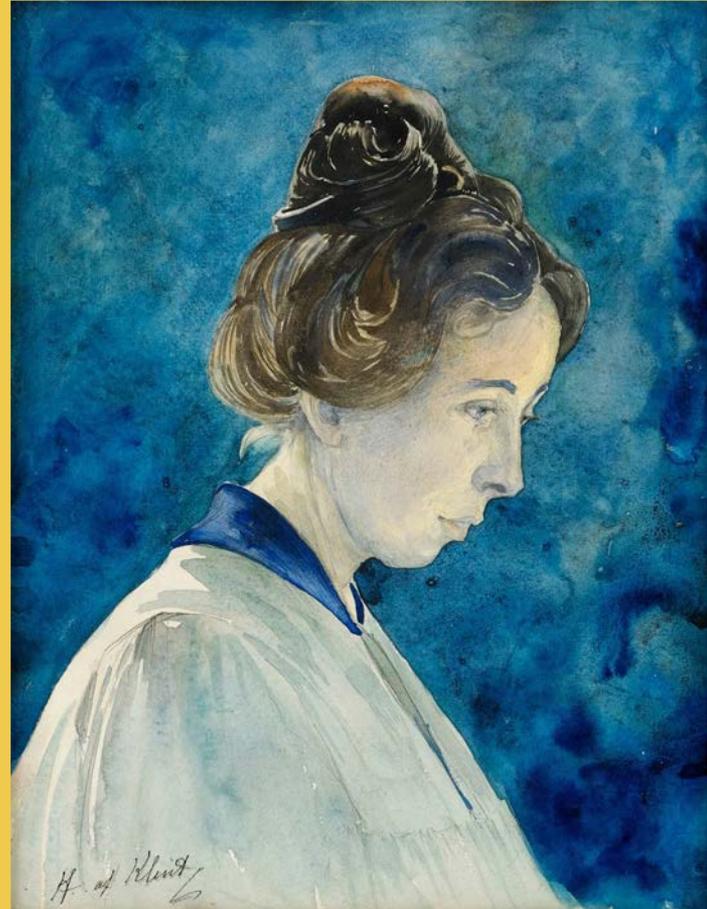

STENCIL

SYMBOLISM

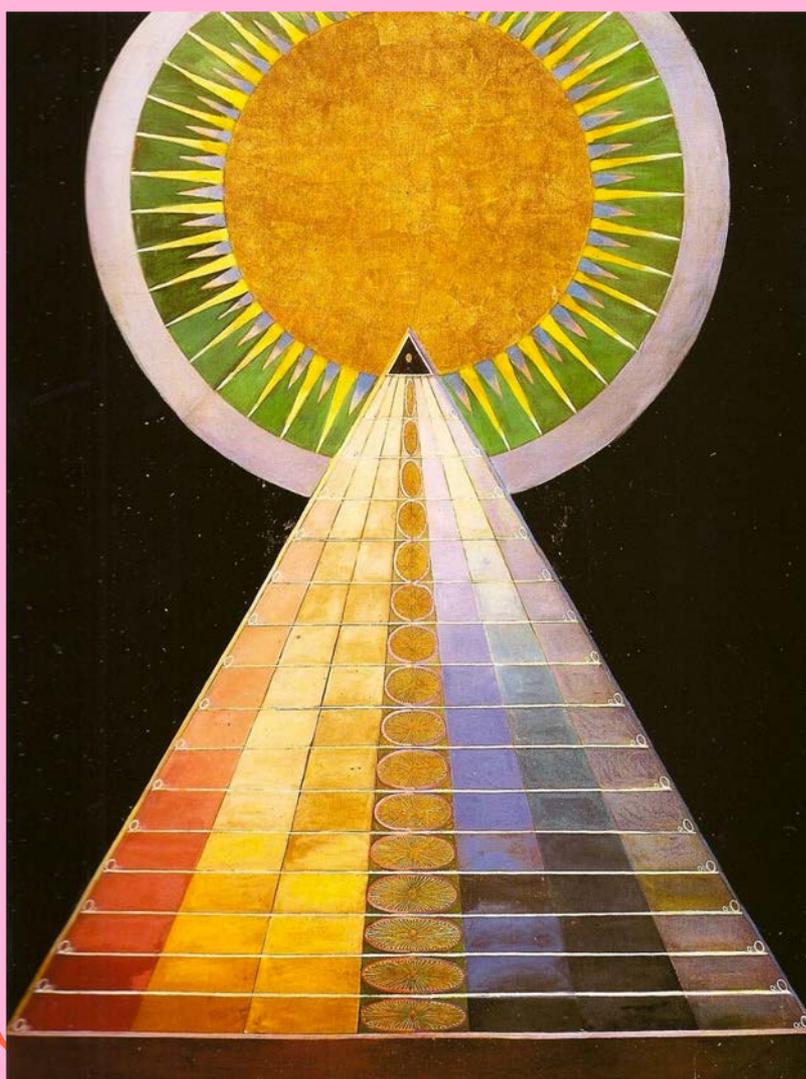

HILMA AF KLINT

- ★ Born in Sweden in 1862
- ★ Very interested in symbolism and abstraction
- ★ Used lots of color and geometric patterns in her work
- ★ Kept her art hidden for 20 years

Hilma af Klint, Svanen (The Swan), No. 17, Group 9, 1915

Hilma af Klint, Altopiece No. 1, Group X, 1915

Hilma af Klint, The ten
Largest series, No.2,
Childhood

The background is a solid orange-red color. It is decorated with several abstract elements: a yellow squiggly line in the top-left corner, a blue flower-like shape in the top-left, a white squiggly line in the top-right, a large blue shape in the top-right, a pink shape in the bottom-left, a white squiggly line in the bottom-left, a yellow starburst in the bottom-right, and a blue squiggly line in the bottom-right.

YOUR TURN

STENCILS AND COLORING

1. Outline shapes on your paper using stencils
1. Color in your shapes using crayons

